

Faculty Employment Opportunity

POSITION: Lecturer in Ethnic Studies. The Ethnic Studies Program invites applications for a pool of part-time lecturers from candidates qualified to teach undergraduate Ethnic Studies courses. Because program needs can vary from semester to semester, applicants are encouraged to identify any of the following areas of introductory or upper-division coursework they would be qualified to teach in: Introduction to Ethnic Studies; Introduction to Chicax-Latinx Studies; Chicax-Latinx Families; Chicax-Latinx Experiences; and California Racial/Ethnic Awareness. Candidates interested in teaching more advanced courses should indicate the range and depth of their relevant professional training.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: M.A. in Ethnic Studies or related field with compelling evidence of strong undergraduate teaching experience.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Ph.D. in Ethnic Studies or related field.

HOW TO APPLY & DEADLINE: A complete application is required for review and must include: application letter addressing the position description and qualifications outlined above; a CV (including names and contact information for three references); and unofficial copies of graduate transcripts. Consideration of applications will begin upon submission of complete documentation and continue until program needs are addressed.

CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CLEARANCE NOTICE

The university requires a criminal and/or child abuse background check to be completed for many of its new employees, current employees seeking promotional or transfer opportunities, and current employees assigned new duties. Satisfactory completion of a background check (including a criminal records check) is required for employment. CSU will make a conditional offer of employment, which may be rescinded if the background check reveals disqualifying information, and/or it is discovered that the candidate knowingly withheld or falsified information. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the continued employment of a current CSU employee who was conditionally offered the position. Failure to consent to any background check will disqualify an applicant from further consideration. Additionally, an applicant who fails to provide the necessary information or who provides false or misleading information may also be disqualified from further consideration. Later discovery of false or misleading information related to the background check may result in the offer of employment being withdrawn or subject the employee to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
