

ICAP - ANGOLA

SUMMARY OF JOB FUNCTIONS

Job Title:	Care and Treatment Assistant
Supervisor:	Provincial Care and Treatment Officer
Work Location:	Luanda
Date:	October 2023

POSITION SUMMARY

ICAP in Angola is working in coordination with the Angolan Ministry of Health to support the implementation of family-focused services in the area of HIV Care and Treatment and collaborative HIV activities.

The position of Care and Treatment Assistant to the Provincial Care and Treatment Officer.

Responsibilities:

He will dedicate his entire working time at the health facilities, carrying out comprehensive activities including, but not limited to, ensuring providers are aware of and applying national HIV testing guidelines, initiation of ART for PLHIV, comprehensive and ethical clinical care allowing access to viral load testing, comprehensive knowledge of the benefits of ART and minimize ART interruptions; integrated HIV care and women's and child health (ANC) ensuring that all pregnant women know their HIV status, those living with HIV receive and continue ART, babies receive drugs to prevent HIV infection and have access to HIV screening test (early infant diagnosis), breastfeeding women living with HIV receive continuum and comprehensive care including for family planning; PLHIV partners and children learn their HIV status through awareness raising and ongoing guidance by MINSA clinical service providers. It will also support MINSA officials to implement Continuous Quality Improvement cycles.

Requirements:

- At least 12 months of clinical practice in HIV-related activities.
- Comprehensive HIV knowledge (HIV counseling and testing, HIV positive Case Index approach, Clinical care for people living with HIV, Antiretroviral treatment, Prevention of Mother-to-Child Transmission of HIV, Comprehensive and integrated care for patients with Tuberculosis and HIV).
- Ability to work in a team, professional ethics and work towards objectives and goals.
- Skill in the use of the computer, manipulation of Word, Excel and Power Point.
- Submit to work by objectives and be evaluated according to the performance of the results.
- Reside in the municipality in which you are applying.

Education:

- Certificate in Nursing or equivalent.